Questionnaire

My Cat	Yes	No	Not Sure
Is less willing to jump up and/or down (e.g. from your lap, bed, sofa)
Is having difficulty coming in and/or out of the cat flap
Can only jump up and/or down from lower heights
Has difficulty going up and/or down the stairs
Plays less with his toys and/or other animals
Show signs of lameness, limping or pain when moving
Is overall less agile (not climbing trees/fences)
Claws are longer than normal, or clicking on floors when walking
Cries out for no apparent reason, including at night
Cries when lifted or being handled e.g. during grooming or stroking
Has become more fearful, withdrawn and/or aggressive to people and / or animals
Is more reluctant to greet me or interact with me
Is asleep more often or is less active than normal
Has more accidents outside the litter tray
Spends less time grooming and/or has a poor coat
Appears forgetful
Has an increased, or decreased appetite
Has changed its sleeping place e.g. to the floor or low surfaces
Is drinking more- how much over 24 hours
Any cough or other breathing changes			